Did you know? (facts discovered in the forum)

- Our website can be translated into a variety of languages by clicking on the icon in the top right hand corner and picking the language.
- Our forum now mirrors our inclusive 'One Voice' as everyone is included.
- Our new newsletter is in addition to the team letters and celebrates St Paul's life.
- If the school know your preferred language for communication our 'group call' can be translated into this choice.
- If you didn't receive our newsletter by e-mail please check with the office that we have the right address as we aim to go 'Paperless' in the future.

You asked/ we will following the forum

1. For more suggestion boxes - we are waiting to have one fitted in the hanger area as you walk into the playground.
2. For pupils quotes in our newsletter - look out for these
3. For pupils to be involved in creating the letter - look out for pupils

My views, suggestions and thoughts on St Paul's life.

Please feel free to share your ideas with us and post it in the box in reception, this will move to the hanger area or pop it to your child's teacher .
